Metropolitan Orchestra of Lisboa

1st January, at 11am and 5pm, Centro Cultural de Belém, Praça do Império (tram: 15 | buses: 714, 727, 728, 729, 751). Tickets: from 15 to 30 euros.
More information at: ccb.pt

The New Year Concert by the Orquestra Metropolitana de Lisboa is already a tradition and could not be missing this year. Even because it is the best way to start the orchestra's 30 year celebration. This is a concert for those who cannot do without the music from Johann Strauss II. In fact, it has already become a ritual to start the new year with waltzes and polkas. The Metropolitana suggests a rich concert: overture of the operetta The Bat, op. 367; Voices of Spring Waltz, op.410; Artist's Life Waltz, op. 316; Blue Danube Waltz, op.314; Pizzicato Polka; Bauern Polka, op.96A; Tritsch-Tratsch Polka, op. 214, among other classical pieces like the Lyric Waltz, the 3 Pieces for Orchestra, op.96A, by Sibelius, or the Waltz of the Flowers, from the ballet The Nutcracker. Maestro Pedro Neves will be conducting the musicians.

New Year Concert

2nd January, at 4pm, Teatro Nacional de São Carlos, Rua Serpa Pinto, 9 (metro: Baixa-Chiado). Tickets: from 15 to 25 euros.
More information at: tnsc.pt

The Choir from the Teatro Nacional de São Carlos and the Orquestra Sinfónica Portuguesa come together again to celebrate the new year with music, a good part of which is traditionally associated with this day. This is the case of the Viennese waltzes. What both artistic groups propose is to lead the public through a pulsating, fun and festive universe. With that in mind, they will be performing the overture of the operetta The Bat, from Johann Strauss II, in which one can hear the midnight strokes, as well as the known Dance of the Hours, from the opera La Gioconda, by Ponchielli. Giuseppe Verdi will be the composer in evidence, both with his choirs of witches and people disguised as bullfighters and gipsies and with the piece Winter, from the ballet The Four Seasons. Giampaolo Vessela, chief maestro of the choir, will be conducting the singers and Antonio Piroll will be the orchestra's musical director.

Grand New Year Concert

10th January, at 9:30pm, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Rossio, Restauradores). Tickets: from 28 to 43 euros. More information at:
coliseulisboa.com

The best of Strauss' waltzes, polkas and marches will be heard and seen at the Coliseu de Lisboa, in the interpretations of the Strauss Festival Orchestra and the choreographies of the Strauss Festival Ballet Ensemble. They will be playing and dancing known pieces by the Austrian musician, such as Napoleon, Blumenfest, Klipp Klapp, The Emperor Waltz or Champagne. The most famous of all waltzes, The Blue Danube, or the Radetzky March, which usually closes the show to the beat of the public's clapping, will also be included. This is a production acclaimed by over a million spectators all over Europe, from Vienna to Amsterdam, from Berlin to Rome, from Barcelona to Madrid, and now it is back in Lisboa.

KINO

German Film Festival

From 27th January to 2nd February, Cinema São Jorge, Av. da Liberdade, 175 (metro: Avenida).
Tickets: 4 euros, general, 3,50 euros, children and seniors. More information at: goethe.de/ins/pt

KINO's 19th edition promises to look at the future and the cinema from a female point of view. In eight of the 15 movies signed by female directors, the subjects are very diversified, dealing with structural racism, the affective heritage, the reconstruction of self-confidence after a xenophobic attack or even the collective catharsis facing a traumatic episode of sexual manipulation. This edition again includes the three already usual sections: "Visions", for the big film productions; "Perspectives", for first and second works and "Realities", for the documentary films. In the end, in addition to the presentation of films, there will still also room for conversations with directors and for the revelation of the "Audience Award" with the drawing of a trip to Germany.

Alice in Magical Garden

Until 17th April, Tuesday to Thursday, Sundays and holidays, from 6pm to 11pm (last entry at 10pm), Friday, Saturday and holiday eve, from 6pm to midnight (last entry at 11:30pm); Jardim Botânico Tropical, Largo dos Jerónimos (train: Cascais line, Belém station). Tickets: Monday to Thursday, 15 euros, general, Fridays and weekends, 17.5 euros, general. More information at: lisboa.magicalgarden.pt

Do you dare to enter Alice's world? That is the challenge which Magical Garden presents to all those who visit it. It is a magical journey through the most fun and thrilling random situations experienced by the character created by Lewis Carroll. It is a sensorial adventure inspired by "Alice in Wonderland" and "Alice Through the Looking Glass", which proposes an immersive one kilometre journey, in which the spectator is simultaneously a part of the story. The show has no beginning and no end, unfolding in a one-way route with 24 luminous experiences taken from both books: giant luminous sculptures, light design, sound environments, multimedia and interactive installations, such as an augmented reality application. The visitor may take his time in his favourite moments, because the visit has no other time limit besides the closing of the garden.

City of Lisboa

Useful Information

Lisboa is the capital of Portugal and the country's biggest city, located on the estuary of the Tejo river, on the European Atlantic coast. It is continental Europe's westernmost capital.

Portugal's official language is Portuguese. Derived from Latin roots, Portuguese is the third most spoken European language in the world, with around 200 million speakers.

Around 3 million people live in the Lisboa region, with around 600 thousand living in the capital itself. The Portuguese Constitution allows religious freedom, with various religions being practised in Portugal.

Electric voltage: 230 / 400 volts, on a 50-hertz frequency. The electric sockets adhere to European standards. Blade plugs (US standard) must be used in conjunction with a 230 volts transformer, as well as an adaptor.

In Lisboa winters are mild and summers hot, though moderated by its location near the sea. During spring and autumn there are usually sunny days with mild temperatures.

Local currency and Payments

The Euro is Portugal's official currency, having been introduced in January 2002. 1 Euro is divided into 100 cents. There are coins of 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 cents and 1 and 2 Euros. The bills can be distinguished by their size and colour and have the following face values: 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200 and 500 Euros. In Portugal, payments can be made in cash, bank transfer, cheque, credit cards and debit cards.

PATRIMÓNIO DA
HUMANITY

The song of Lisboa and the World

Classified as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO since November 2011, Fado is the purest expression of Lisboa's "soul". Much more than just a song, Fado is a musical manifestation of feeling Portuguese and a city's way of life, always accompanied by the solemn and melancholy chords of the Portuguese guitar.

Considered a brand inseparable from the culture and tradition of the Portuguese capital, Fado has been for at least two centuries, part of the city's heritage that endowed it with soul and voice. But since influences from overseas, and from various cultures which arrived in Lisboa can also be heard in Fado, Lisboa's song is now deservedly a shared heritage with the world. Inspired from a simple and sentimental language, Fado's universal character surpasses all barriers and is now enjoyed by millions of fans worldwide. This internationalization of Fado is greatly due to the charisma and the voice of Amália Rodrigues, the most renowned fado singer of all time, who from the 1950's took Lisboa's song to the most prestigious venues, from Russia to Japan. More recently, a new generation of singers of this genre has given the song a new vitality, placing it in the circuits of World Music. The ultimate international recognition of Fado comes with UNESCO's highest recognition, whose award of the Intangible Heritage of Humanity title makes this a perfect example of how a centuries-old tradition of a city becomes the identity symbol of a people. Therefore, whenever the lights are dimmed in a fado house and someone says "Silence, Fado is about to be sung", this is not just a ritual that is being performed. It is, as Amália Rodrigues would say, "a strange form of life" that is being renewed.

Fado Houses

Here visitors can experience the whole atmosphere and rituals associated with Lisboa's song and listen to this language of emotions. Set in the historic districts of the city such as Alfama, Bairro Alto, Lapa and Alcântara, there are diverse establishments which host regular performances of fado, with resident artists.

The story of love, betrayal and triumph of good over evil presents itself in the Swan Lake ballet, performed by the dancers of the Russian Classical Ballet and directed by Evgeniya Bespalova. The story of an impossible love between a prince and a swan girl is already considered a great classic of the dance repertoire. The ballet requires dexterity and a high technical quality in the interpretation of the characters, as well as a high degree of drama in the interpretation of the lead dancer. The new production also includes very realistic stage elements and hand-made costume accessories.

In this show, choreographer Olga Roriz directs dancers of four nationalities: Portuguese, Italian, British and Polish. "Insomnia" is presented as being a claim of the body's place, from its energy to its frailty. It is a study about the feminine and the masculine, the male and the female, with no defined sex, without gender. Eroticism is present in this ballet, shown as a solitary game, a way of liberation, an institution which is human and at the same time animal. With soundtrack by Olga Roriz herself and by João Raposo, the dance embodies love, gender and genetics and represents stories shared with decorum or crudely.

This chamber opera is presented at the Grande Auditório of the CCB with staging by the Brasilian Felipe Hirsch, with the Orquestra Metropolitana de Lisboa and maestro Pedro Neves. The work which resulted in the show was above all centred on Jean Cocteau, a very complete and diverse artist. Lisboa An invitation to shop

January is the perfect month to shop and Lisboa is the perfect destination. From one end to the other, the eyes get lost in the window displays which are still full of the Christmas spirit but invite you to come in with their vast range of products at irresistible prices. After all, it is sales season. From Baixa to Chiado, passing Avenida da Liberdade, among small historical spaces and the international insignias, Lisboa is a world where tradition, modernity and luxury come together. Not to mention the modern shopping centres.

Roaming through Lisboa's most historical streets, we can find some traces of the commerce of old times in the typical houses which sell products that are as traditional as useful or decorative.

In Rossio, it is worth it to take a peek into the inside of Tabacaria Mónaco. Established in 1875, when we enter this tobacco, cigar, newspaper and magazine selling store, we get a feeling of having gone back in time: a unique naturalistic decoration, with cabinets in Brazilian wood, a water sprout, tiles and Rafael Bordalo Pinheiro's swallows, paintings on the windows and frescos by António Ramalho on the ceiling. On the way to Chiado, in Rua do Carmo, the façade of the jewellery store which gives the street its name leaves no passerby indifferent. Inside, the traditional Portuguese filigree is the star. The decoration, despite some small changes, has kept its original style. The furniture is the same: displays, doors, the centre table with marble top, the crystal chandeliers and the spiral staircase remain in the store since the decade of 1920. Just a few metres away, in Rua Nova do Almada, it is possible to go into the second oldest bookstore in the country: Livraria Ferin, an unavoidable stop for book collectors. Closer to the river, already in Rua dos Bacalhoeiros, after having passed Praça do Comércio, we can find the Conserveira de Lisboa. With its wooden shelves lined with colourful cans, this store houses the wonderful world of canned fish, many of which from Portuguese waters.

From traditional products to modern and luxury commerce, Lisboa offers a little of everything. Between restaurants, hotels and concert halls, Avenida da Liberdade, considered to be one of the most luxurious streets in the world, invites for a visit to brand stores like Carolina Herrera, Louis Vuitton, Cartier, Burberry or Michael Kors.

Besides the street commerce, the shopping centres are also well deserving of a visit. In Amoreiras Shopping Center, which colourful towers do not go unnoticed, the over 200 stores, ranging from fashion, decoration, culture, leisure, food, health and beauty, are joined by a terrace with a 360° view over the city. An absolute must!

Other examples multiply. Such as the Centro Comercial Vasco da Gama, in Parque das Nações. Accessible by train, bus or metro, besides the diversity in the product range, it also has a series of terraces with a panoramic view over the Tejo. On the other river bank, after crossing the Vasco da Gama bridge, the Freeport Lisboa Fashion Outlet is another option for a shopping day. With leisure areas, resting spots and food court, the stores are set in outdoor galleries, providing a unique experience.

From the most typical and traditional products to the most sophisticated ones, Lisboa embraces all kinds of commerce. Come and find out for yourself.

Each solo results in a three minute film, coming to a total of thirteen films to which a final one was added, with a summary and a dramaturgical connection to all the previous ones. Five centuries ago, more precisely on a May day in 1575, the view of Lisboa from the Tejo was quite different from the one we have today. At the time, Portugal was a commercial empire, pioneer in the opening of several sea routes and Lisboa had the Tejo as an entrance door, where every day ships arrived with merchandise from all the cities in the world. On a normal day, 14th May, Simão de Miranda, a Portuguese in the service of the duke of Turin, arrived on a ship and took the opportunity of his short visit to draw an impressive view of the city from the Tejo. It was because of archaeological evidences recovered from the old church of S. Julião, where this drawing was included, that several objects from that time were found. This exhibition reveals aspects from the daily life of the city of Lisboa by the end of the sixteenth century.

Here Anne Lefebvre presents a show in which she begins with the manipulation of the structural elements of photography. She introduces actions associated with the pictorial context into the process of capturing and developing the image, creating a universe of strangeness and ambiguity which dilutes the expectations of the information contained in a photograph. While her first solo exhibition took place at the Centre Georges Pompidou in Paris in 1993, since 1980 she has had her work exhibited in many countries, including Belgium, Germany, Holland, Austria, Turkey and the United States.
