SURVEY TO CRUISE PASSENGERS

INTRODUCTION

Following up the study Observatório do Turismo de Lisboa has been doing in the previous years, together with the Administração do Porto de Lisboa regarding the profile of the cruise passenger and his/her level of satisfaction with the visit to Lisbon, a new edition was carried out in 2017.

With this objective, a sample of 49 ships stopping in Lisbon between April and November was selected, where we were able to interview 1003 foreign passengers.

Based on a questionnaire designed by the Observatório do Turismo de Lisboa, the interviews were conducted by the company 2ii – Informática e Informação, Lda.

This report intends to be an analysis of the gathered data, highlighting the main results.

PROFILE

Similarly to previous years, in terms of nationality, 40,5% of the passengers interviewed are British (40,6% in 2016). The second place belongs to Spain (11,3% in 2016), and the third place to Germany (10,6% in 2016).

73,6% of the passengers is male (65,7% in 2016). In terms of age group, 62,7% is over 55 years old, 32,7% is between 35 and 54 and 4,7% below 35. In 2016, those percentages were, respectively, 37,8%, 50,3% and 11,9%.

As a common trend in this study, the large majority of the passengers is married or with a life partner (74,7% in 2016).

In what concerns the academic level, 89,1% of the passengers holds at least a university degree (69,1% in 2016).

The weight of retired passengers was of 9,7% (12,0% in 2016).

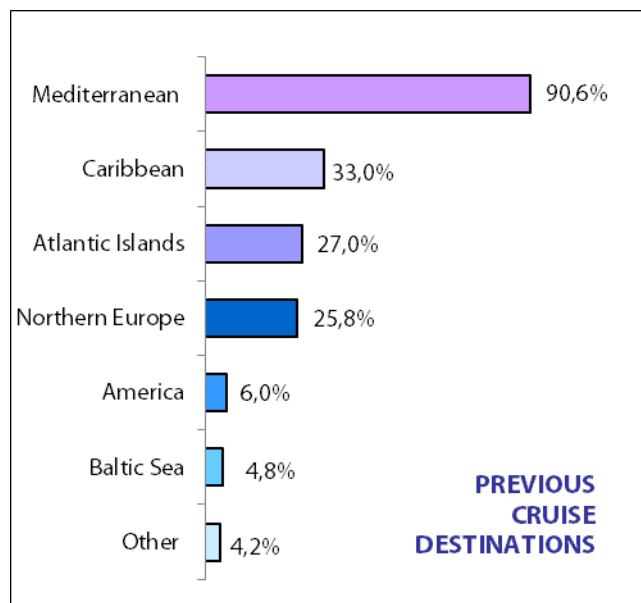

As has usually been the case, the strong majority of the interviewed passengers (98,3%) travels accompanied (98,1% in 2016). 89,1% of those, travels with their wife/husband/partner, with 44,8% travelling only as a couple (28,1% in 2016), and 6,1% only with friends (12,8% in 2016).

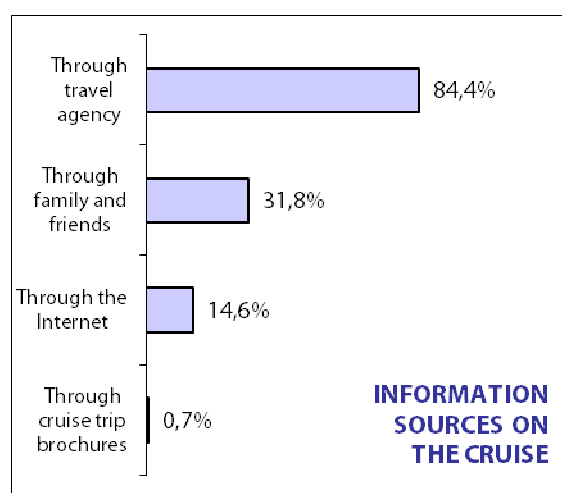

THE CRUISE

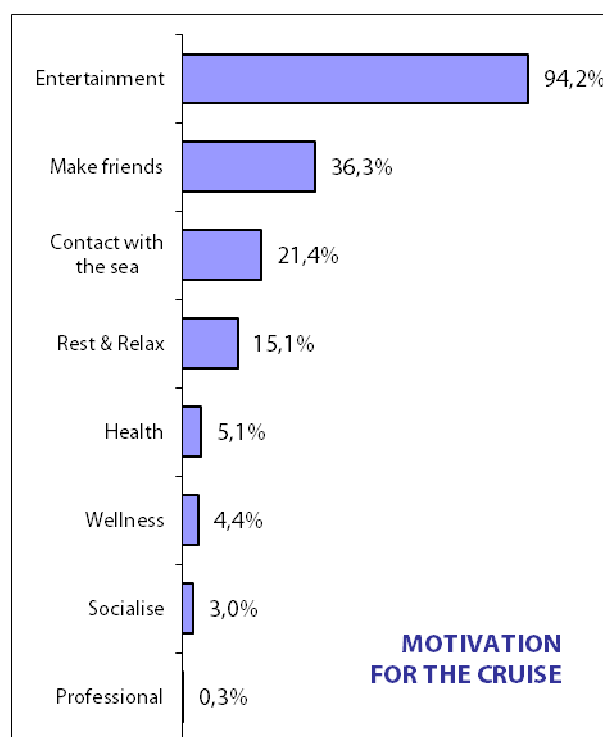

8,9% dos of the passengers were on their first cruise (33,0% in 2016). On average, the cruises they were in had a duration of 13,1 days. 90,1% had had previous experiences in this type of tourism (67,0% in 2016), and, of these, the majority chose the Mediterranean or the Caribbean as a destination.

While last year the main source of information about the cruise was family and friends (50,4%), in 2017 the preference went to travel agencies (41,3% in 2016).

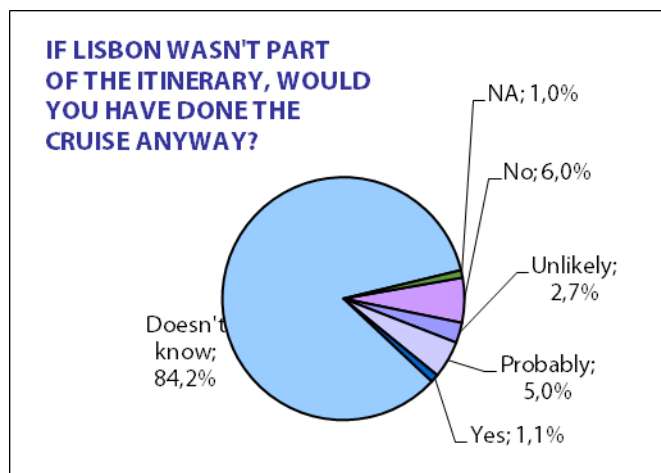

For the interviewed passengers, the Leisure element keeps being the main reason for doing a cruise (83,3% in 2016). In second and third places came Making friends and Contact with the sea.

	8,33

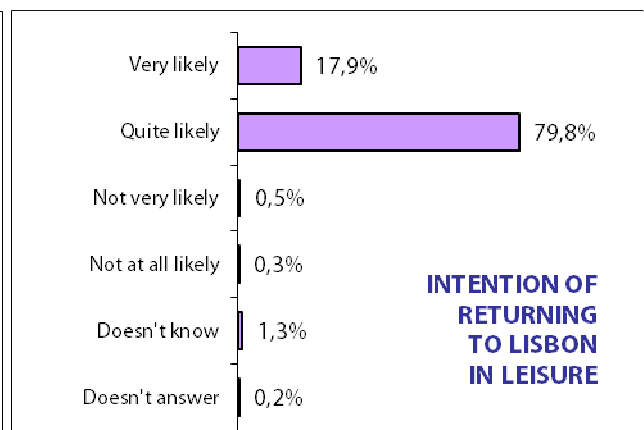

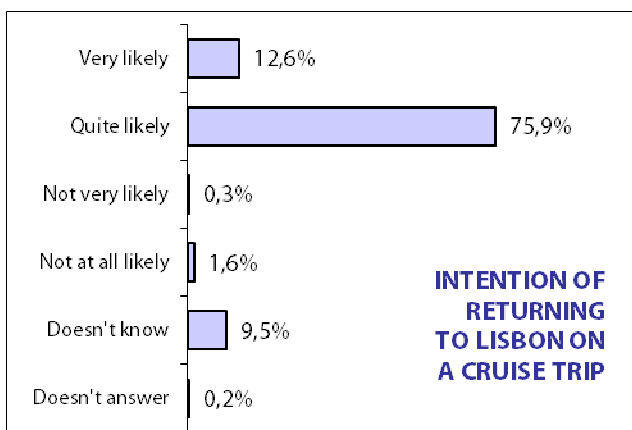

Regarding the expectation previous to their visit to Lisbon, 16,1% of these passengers saw their expectations exceeded (51,0% in 2016).

On a scale from 1 to 10, the average level of satisfaction with the visit to Lisbon was of 8,41 (8,59 in 2016).

88,4% of the passengers considers the return to Lisbon in a cruise trip as likely or very likely, (49,4% in 2016), while 97,7% has the same evaluation of their return to the city in leisure and outside the context of a cruise (88,8% in 2016).

As in 2016, all the interviewed passengers recommend Lisbon as a port of call, as well as a global tourism destination.

In what concerns their recommendation as a tourism destination, 16,5% of these cruise passengers places Lisbon in the Top 5 destinations to be visited (12,2% in 2016), while 78,3% include Lisbon in the Top 10 (81,3% in 2016).

EXPENSES

From the information gathered on the expenses made during their cruise trip (43,3% of the total of interviewed passengers), we were able to obtain, an average daily individual expense of 49,31 euros during their visit to Lisbon (57,10 euros in 2016). One should take into consideration when comparing to last year, that the sample of interviewed passengers is considerably older, and, on the other hand, has doubled the use of a travel agency for their booking, which might lead to less extra expenses outside the cruise package.

Additionally, in comparison with 2016, a high percentage of passengers had already visited Lisbon previously to this trip.

Em 2017, the components of this expense had, on average, the following distribution:

In what concerns the items that integrate this expense, not all the interviewed passengers spent money in all of them.

From the passengers who answered the expenses question, 12,7% said they have had expenses while visiting Monuments, Museums or Attractions (21,5% in 2016), 87,8% of the passengers indicated having spent money on Shopping (73,6% in 2016), 57,6% had expenses on Food & Beverage (76,5% in 2016), 31,3% spent money in Transportation while in Lisbon (68,2% in 2016), and 12,9% says to have bought an excursion in Lisbon (4,4% in 2016). And finally, 16,8% had accommodation expenses (2,4% in 2016).

EXPENSES	% passengers who affirm to have had this expense	average cost for the passengers who had this expense (per person)
Visit to monuments/museums / attractions	12,7%	10,56 €
Shopping	87,8%	23,77 €
Food & beverage	57,6%	19,38 €
Transport in the city	31,3%	15,47 €
Excursion bought locally	12,9%	34,97 €
Accommodation	16,8%	39,08 €
Other	0,0%	n.a.

On average, the individual amounts spent in each component were as follows: Monuments, Museums or Attractions - 10,56 euros (9,36 euros in 2016); Shopping - 23,77 euros (34,24 euros in 2016); Food & Beverage - 19,38 euros (23,48 euros in 2016); Transportation in Lisbon - 15,47 euros (12,68 euros in 2016), Excursion bought locally - 34,97 euros (24,90 euros in 2016) and Accommodation - 39,08 (93,04 euros in 2016).

In comparison to the previous year, a larger percentage of passengers has had expenses in the items of Visit to monuments, Shopping, Excursion bought locally and Accommodation. The average expense in the several components is higher than in 2016 only in Monuments, Museums or Attractions, Transportation in the destination and the Excursion bought locally.
